Digital Safety CIC & Lambton Leadership Academy

We are a small, diverse, entrepreneurial team with a social purpose – Digital Safety for All. We have experienced first-hand the massive challenge for the commercial, public and third sectors of keeping pace with the new risks and threats in our fast-changing digital world.

Our Lambton Leadership Academy brand provides leadership training, primarily to the Gulf states with some 800 delegates going through our programme in the last three years. The Lambton Leadership Academy is rooted in socio-technical leadership, underpinned by relevant theory.

Our team comprises of distinguished academics who bring innovative thought leadership to the table, enriching our training programs with the latest advancements in leadership studies.

Our fearless leaders bring real-world insights and leadership acumen having served at senior level across law enforcement, security, and defence at the highest ranks, ensuring that our training is not only rooted in academic rigour but also reflects the practical challenges facing the commercial sector.

Our lived experience combined with academic rigour and up to date knowledge on emerging leadership concepts and models places us in a unique position to transfer knowledge to the C-Suite, Senior Leaders and future leaders for use in the commercial world.
